

JEWELS BY JAR

November 20, 2013–March 9, 2014

This exhibition of jewels by Joel A. Rosenthal, who has worked for more than thirty-five years in Paris under the name JAR, is the first retrospective of his work in America. The exhibition includes more than four hundred one-of-a-kind masterworks by this influential designer.

Rosenthal, born in New York and educated at Harvard University, moved shortly after graduation to Paris. Within a few years his passion for making jewelry surpassed his other ventures, and he opened a small, almost hidden shop on the Place Vendôme where he could show his work. He quickly became well known for his sculptural designs in vibrant colors: wild rose and weeping-willow earrings; raspberry, asparagus, and leek brooches; soft-as-fabric handkerchief earrings; an ocean wave; a diamond-bridled zebra. He uses traditional as well as non-traditional materials: aluminum, titanium, steel, wood, silver darkened by chemical processes, even beetle wings. Whether the jewels are small or large, natural or geometric, wild in color or quietly shaded, each work is a singular expression of JAR's unique creative spirit.

The exhibition is made possible by Henry and Marie-Josée Kravis, Phaidon Press Ltd, Nancy and Howard Marks, The Ronald and Jo Carole Lauder Foundation, Agnes Gund, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Livanos, and Hilary and Wilbur Ross.
