

PLANNING YOUR GIFT TO THE METROPOLITAN MUSEUM OF ART

Since its beginnings more than a century ago, the Metropolitan Museum has received generous support from a distinguished group of friends who have, with their gifts and personal commitment, built it into one of the most encyclopedic museums in the world.

There are a variety of ways in which friends of the Museum can maximize their support. A bequest by will continues to provide one important avenue. In addition, there are ways of benefiting the Museum that have immediate tax advantages for donors. These plans may provide income for the donor and/or some other person, or they can be useful in transferring assets to one's heirs at a lower tax cost.

Such a gift will both perpetuate your long-standing commitment to the Museum and help assure that its riches will be there for future generations to enjoy.

Perhaps you have already made such a provision. If so, you are eligible for membership in The William Society. To let us know, please contact the Planned Giving Program, The Metropolitan Museum of Art, 1000 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10028-0198 or by email at planned.giving@metmuseum.org.

For more information on ways of supporting the work of the Metropolitan through estate planning, please visit the Museum's website at www.metmuseum.org in the Planned Giving section under Ways to Give.

The Museum wishes to thank particularly: Mayor Michael R. Bloomberg; City Council Speaker Christine Quinn; Chair of the City Council Finance Committee David I. Weprin; Chair of the City Council Cultural Affairs, Libraries, and International Intergroup Relations Committee Domenic M. Recchia, Jr.; Comptroller William C. Thompson; Deputy Mayor Patricia E. Harris; Commissioner of Cultural Affairs Kate D. Levin; Commissioner of Parks and Recreation Adrian Benepe; Manhattan Borough President Scott M. Stringer; City Council Member Daniel Garodnick; City Council Member Robert Jackson; City Council Member Melissa Mark Viverito; and other members of the New York City Council.

The State of New York again provided valuable support of the Museum through the New York State Council of the Arts. We thank especially Governor David A. Paterson; Assembly Speaker Sheldon Silver; the leadership of the State Senate; our local representatives in Albany, State Senator Liz Krueger and Assemblymembers Jonathan L. Bing and Linda B. Rosenthal; President and CEO of the Empire State Development Corporation Dennis Mullen (designate); NYSCA Interim Chairman Danny Schmidt; and the council associates and staff for their continuing efforts on our behalf.
