

TICKET PACKAGES

Single Ticket $400

Within the limits prescribed by law, $250 is tax-deductible

The Cloisters Contributor $1,000

- Two tickets to the Gala Holiday Dinner at The Cloisters
  - Recognition at the Gala Holiday Dinner at The Cloisters
- Within the limits prescribed by law, $700 is tax-deductible*

Music and a View $3,500

- Four tickets to the Gala Holiday Dinner at The Cloisters
  - Attend a Sunday afternoon concert with three guests in the twelfth-century Fuentidueña Chapel, whose beauty and acoustics are ideal for the performance of medieval music
  - Following the concert, enjoy Afternoon Tea for four in The Cloisters Tower Office surrounded by breathtaking views of the Hudson River
  - Recognition at the Gala Holiday Dinner at The Cloisters
- Within the limits prescribed by law, $2,676 is tax-deductible*

The Cloistered Gardens $5,000

- Four tickets to the Gala Holiday Dinner at The Cloisters
- Explore the Cuxa, Bonnefont, and Trie gardens of The Cloisters on a private tour with Deirdre Larkin, the Museum Horticulturist, on a Monday when The Cloisters is closed to the public and receive an extraordinary bouquet of medieval herbs and flowers from the gardens (Seasonal, for a maximum of four people)

- Following the tour, enjoy sherry in the gardens
  - Recognition at the Gala Holiday Dinner at The Cloisters
- Within the limits prescribed by law, $4,274 is tax-deductible*

A Toast to the Middle Ages $7,500

- Four tickets to the Gala Holiday Dinner at The Cloisters
  - A party of four may join Barbara Drake Boehm, Curator, in The Cloisters Tower Office on a Monday to learn about which French wines and cheeses available today have celebrated histories that can be traced to the Middle Ages. While enjoying breathtaking views of the Hudson River, taste wines favored by royalty from Charlemagne to Charles IV
  - Recognition at the Gala Holiday Dinner at The Cloisters
- Within the limits prescribed by law, $6,600 is tax-deductible*

A Medieval Journey $10,000

- Enjoy a private table of six at the Gala Holiday Dinner at The Cloisters
  - Invite five guests on a majestic journey through The Cloisters' halls, chapels, tapestry rooms, and cloistered gardens with Peter Barnet, Michel David-Weill Curator in Charge, on a Monday when The Cloisters is closed to the public
  - Following the tour, enjoy champagne in the twelfth-century Fuentidueña Chapel
  - Recognition at the Gala Holiday Dinner at The Cloisters
- Within the limits prescribed by law, $8,974 is tax-deductible*